

Can bk650 be used as an outdoor power supply

Can I use a br1200gi ups with a 600W power supply?

Although you may not use the full capacity of your power supply (600w), we don't recommend using a UPS that will not support it at full capacity. We would recommend either the BR1200GI or BR1500GI as they are the only two that support your power supply at full capacity. Posted: 2021-06-29 08:00 AM . Last Modified: 2024-03-21 04:31 AM

Does APC have a backup power supply?

When you need a reliable energy backup to keep your office ticking over during mains outages, choose this uninterruptible power supply from APC. Its six outlets make it a breeze to connect several devices and run them safely from the UPS's internal battery if the power fails.

Should I use a BK or BR ups?

The "BR" line is a better option than the "BK" line. I would recommend the back up PRO line as these two UPS' will not support more than 390 watts. Although you may not use the full capacity of your power supply (600w), we don't recommend using a UPS that will not support it at full capacity.
