Should I buy an inverter for my off-grid power system?

Every time power is converted a little electricity is lost thereby losing some efficiency in your off-grid power system. While the loss is only small, it's still something to consider. You also don't have the added cost of buying an inverter. Low Energy Use DC appliances are designed to run on less watts than AC appliances.

What is an off-grid inverter?

An 'Off Grid' or 'camping' inverter is a type of inverter that requires battery, wind, or solar power to function. It is commonly used off the grid and can be fixed or portable if small enough.

What happens if the inverter is damaged during the warranty period?

If the inverter is correctly installed according to the User Manual, when the type II DC SPD integrated in the inverter is damaged during the warranty period, GOODWE regards it as a type of inverter failure and provides the guarantee to send new spare parts to the customer. (Only for South American).

Is goodwe liable if the inverter fails?

GoodWe shall guarantee the performance of the inverter under the normal working conditions within the limited warranty term and provide limited technical support if applicable. However, GoodWe shall assume no liability for system malfunctions and any incurred loss or damages whatsoever.

What happens if a goodwe inverter is replaced?

For every single inverter replacement case, the claimant must gather the necessary information and send the RMA report (by following GOODWE's RMA template) to GOODWE to confirm the RMA request, prior to the inverter being replaced. All parts of the product or other equipment that replaced by GOODWE shall become GOODWE's property.
